Dear Parents and Carers

I hope you all had a lovely half term and welcome back to school. As I'm sure you are aware, on Saturday the Prime Minister announced a 4-week national lockdown from Thursday 5th November 2020. In his statement, he was very clear that schools will remain open and that children are expected to attend school, stating that senior clinician's advice, that school is the best place for children to be at this time. I do appreciate that this is a worrying and anxious time but I wanted to take this opportunity to reassure you that we continue to have our protective measures in place in school to continue to provide a safe environment for all children, staff and parents.

It is more important now than ever that as a school community we adhere to the protective measures in place at all times. Please do remember to only attend school site at the designated drop off and collection time and wear a mask/visor if you are able to. Please do not approach the class teacher, if you need to speak to your child's class teacher please use the class email.

Finally, I would like to extend our continued support for all members of our community during these unprecedented times. If there is any further support that you or your family need in any aspect of your life, please do not hesitate to contact me so we can work through this together. No member of our community is alone. We now have food parcels in school that we can give out if you require them. I have no doubt that this half term will prove difficult for us all and I thank you for your on-going support at this challenging time.

Kind regards

Sue Spearman
