

Reception Homework – Autumn Term 2016

| Bronze Award  | Silver Award  | Gold Award   |
|--|--|---|
| Read daily to an adult at home. This must be recorded at least 3 times a week in your reading diary.   | Read daily to an adult at home. This must be recorded at least 5 times a week in your reading diary. | In order to measure this, teachers will be looking for children who demonstrate: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Outstanding effort and progress with reading, letter and number knowledge</li> <li>• High quality learning logs which have been completed by the child to the best of their ability</li> <li>• Learning taken forward independently with at least one additional task of child's choosing undertaken</li> </ul> |
| Complete mathematics activities weekly (1 have set 10 – 1 to be completed per week).   | Complete mathematics activities weekly (1 have set 10 – 2 to be completed per week).                 |   |
| Practise letter sounds and formation (sheets in homework folders).   | Practise letter sounds and formation (sheets in homework folders).                                   |   |
| Show progress in your knowledge of numbers to 10 (recognition and value).  | Show progress in your knowledge of numbers to 10 (recognition and value).                            |   |
| In addition, you will need to complete at least 2 of the tasks below:  | In addition, you will need to complete at least 4 of the tasks below:                                |   |
| <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Create some artwork based upon bonfire night and describe it to an adult. Have a go at writing some of the sounds of the words you say.</li> <li>2. Think of different ways to be safe during firework night and record each instruction creatively (e.g. paint, draw, write the initial sound etc).</li> <li>3. Create a Rangoli/Mehndi pattern using lots of different shapes.</li> <li>4. Search for different shapes in the environment (2d and 3d) and record your findings.</li> <li>5. Practise writing your name using different mediums.</li> </ol> |  |   |

Hand in: w/b 5 December 2016