

BUILDING UTOPIA

Free drop in workshop
Craft, Drawing & Imagining the Future

Eastgate Gallery - 29th February - 10:00-16:00

Building Utopia is a public installation taking place at Harlow's Eastgate Gallery on 29th February. Learn about concepts of utopia through time and around the world. What is utopia? What does it mean for you? Design posters for an imagined civilisation, Add your ideas to the wall of change and make buildings, gardens and more to add to the central 'Future City' installation.

Come to make, come to talk, come to watch. Come to think about the past and the future.

All ages and abilities welcome. BSL accessible.

Entry is FREE and there is no need to book. See you there!
